Our employees may provide you with factual information and in some circumstances may provide general financial product advice. General financial product advice is a recommendation or an opinion given orally or in writing that can influence you to make a decision about financial products but does not take into account your particular objectives, financial situation or needs.

HOW WE ARE PAID

MOAPL receives ongoing fees from Trustees to provide superannuation administration services in accordance with agreements in place between the Trustees and MOAPL.

MOAPL pays its employees a salary that may include a performance related bonus.

It is not possible to determine in advance what (if any) additional benefits any employee will receive as these benefits are not generally attributed to any particular product (that the employee recommends or advises on) or service they provide.

Some of the products we recommend or distribute are offered by Mercer entities. If you invest in a product offered by a Mercer entity, then that entity will receive remuneration which will ultimately benefit us and other members of Marsh & McLennan Companies. The details of the remuneration payable to a Mercer entity in respect of products issued by that entity will be described in the PDS for the particular product.
