

Application for membership of the SA Metropolitan Fire Service Superannuation Scheme

About this form

We need you to fill out this form to let us know:

- your details
- who you'd prefer to receive your super if you die while you're a member of the Scheme
- your tax file number
- which investment option you would like for your Accumulation benefit

To find the information you need to complete this form just look in the Member Benefit Guide.

Once you've finished the form, don't forget to sign it and return it to the Manager SA Metropolitan Fire Service Superannuation Scheme at the Adelaide Station at 99 Wakefield St, Adelaide, SA 5000.

If you're unsure of your decisions, we recommend that you see a licensed financial adviser.

Step 1 – Complete your personal details	Please print in black or blue pen, in uppercase, one character per box.

Providing your email address

In the future the Trustee anticipates providing information such as annual reports, member statements, exit statements and notices of any material changes or occurrence of significant events electronically, rather than in written form as we do at the moment. If this format becomes available and you'd like to receive this information electronically please advise your email address.

Step 2 – Contributions

You can choose to pay your contributions from your after-tax salary or from your before-tax salary (also known as 'salary sacrifice').

Forms received by the Trustee by 5:00pm Thursday will be processed at the next declared unit price, generally on the following Monday.

Please note that until your Application form has been received and processed you will remain in the High Growth option (the Scheme's default investment option).

Step 4 – Nominate your beneficiaries

Who'll get your super if you die while you're in the Scheme?

Should I die while a member of the SA Metropolitan Fire Service Superannuation Scheme, I'd prefer my death payout to be paid to the following people in the proportions shown. The Trustee of the SA Metropolitan Fire Service Superannuation Scheme is not legally bound by your wishes but will take them into account.

	TOTAL 1 0 0 %

- * must be a dependant or be your legal personal representative (or the executor of your will). A dependant is defined as:
- your spouse whether by marriage, a de facto relationship (including same-sex partners) or a registered relationship under a law of State or Territory (including same-sex partners)
- your children including step-children, adopted children and your spouse's children, and
- any other person who the Trustee considers is wholly or partially dependent on you at the time of death.

Step 5 – Provide your tax file number

Don't pay more tax than you have to - let us know your tax file number.

Your tax file number is confidential and you don't have to give it to the SA Metropolitan Fire Service Superannuation Scheme. It is not an offence to not provide your tax file number. However, you may pay more tax than you have to if you don't supply it.

My tax file number is:		_

Special note:

In line with the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, the Trustee of the SA Metropolitan Fire Service Superannuation Scheme is authorised to ask for your tax file number. The Trustee will only use your tax file number for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future if there are changes to legislation.

The Trustee may pass your tax file number to any other super fund or account to which your super is transferred in the future unless you request in writing that this not be done.

By providing your tax file number:

- the Trustee will be able to accept all types of contributions made by or for you (some limits may apply)
- you can avoid paying tax at a higher rate than would otherwise apply on your contributions
- you can avoid paying tax at a higher rate than would otherwise apply on your benefit, and
- it will be easier for you to find your super in the future and ensure that you receive all of your super benefits when you retire.

Choosing not to provide your tax file number is not an offence. However, if you don't provide your tax file number now or in the future:

- the Trustee will only be able to accept contributions made for you by your employer. No other contributions, for example, after-tax contributions, can be accepted
- you may pay more tax on contributions made for you by your employer. In some circumstances you may be able to claim back this additional tax, however time limits, fees and other rules may apply
- you may pay more tax on your super benefit than you would otherwise (although you can claim this back when you lodge your tax return).
