

Step 4 – Provide your tax file number (continued)

Don't pay more tax than you have to – let us know your tax file number.

Your tax file number is confidential and you don't have to give it to the SA Metropolitan Fire Service Superannuation Scheme. It is not an offence to not provide your tax file number. However, you may pay more tax than you have to if you don't supply it.

My tax file number is: – –

Special note:

In line with the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, the Trustee of the SA Metropolitan Fire Service Superannuation Scheme is authorised to ask for your tax file number. The Trustee will only use your tax file number for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future if there are changes to legislation.

The Trustee may pass your tax file number to any other super fund or account to which your super is transferred in the future unless you request in writing that this not be done.

By providing your tax file number:

- the Trustee will be able to accept all types of contributions made by or for you (some limits may apply)
- you can avoid paying tax at a higher rate than would otherwise apply on your contributions
- you can avoid paying tax at a higher rate than would otherwise apply on your benefit, and
- it will be easier for you to find your super in the future and ensure that you receive all of your super benefits when you retire.

Choosing not to provide your tax file number is not an offence. However, if you don't provide your tax file number now or in the future:

- the Trustee will only be able to accept contributions made for you by your employer. No other contributions, for example, after-tax contributions, can be accepted
- you may pay more tax on contributions made for you by your employer. In some circumstances you may be able to claim back this additional tax, however time limits, fees and other rules may apply
- you may pay more tax on your super benefit than you would otherwise (although you can claim this back when you lodge your tax return).
